CELEBRATING OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION

28 FEB 2024

CONFERENCE: 8.30am - 4.30pm

Bold and Unapologetic

We challenge assumptions, and do not shy away from asking the questions that matter. From exploring whether the UK is still a world-class study destination to designing international higher ed's manifesto for the incoming government - you are in for a thought-provoking day at a time when the sector is going through a period of turmoil

An incredible speaker line-up

Interact directly with ministers, parliamentarians and leaders in the UK and Indian HE sectors as well as with students, alumni and those that support international HE to design the future of international educational collaboration

Hot topics and actionable, expert insights

Curious how Deakin set up the world's first foreign uni brand campus in India? Why are enrolments from India plummeting? How will changes in the UK's focus on skills impact the HE sector? What are the opportunities for student recruitment? How do you make TNE work? What does being "student-first" actually mean? These are just some of the topics our trailblazers and experts will address as we discuss YOUR agenda

Impactful networking and engagement

Connect with a diverse group of policymakers, educational leaders, influencers and innovators from the UK and India. Use our dedicated conference app to look up participants and schedule meetings

Dedicated collaboration spaces

Set up a chat in our dedicated networking lounge or the range of meeting spaces available

Understand what students really want and need

Conversations about young people have for far too long left young people outside of the conversation. No more - students are at the heart of our agenda. We report from ground zero, so that all stakeholders can understand what students really want and need.

Contribute to policy impact

Influence and contribute to policies that will govern the UK-India education corridor

Hot lunch and refreshments throughout the day
